Pack the Houndbag and you'll carry everything but the dog

The Houndbag is a dog walker's carry-all. It has all sorts of pockets and compartments for everything you need to pack for outings. It even has a waterproof insert to keep precious items dry on wet days. This clever bag also has a practical strap that doubles as an emergency leash.

Bolt for laser fun

The Bolt is an automatic laser light that provides hours of feline fun. It has an adjustable mirror where the laser beam bounces off and you can point it at walls or flooring. Cats love chasing the beam and we found that dogs like it too.

Fruitables the 100% natural low calorie treat

Free of wheat, corn, soy and artificial ingredients, colours or preservatives, these snackalicious treats are perfect for calorie conscious canines. They come in a variety of antioxidant rich flavours.

Love your hound with a Lovehound bed

The Lovehound range of beds and cushions are designed with the convenience of easy care fabrics and stylish durability. Instead of regular washing and drying, the range only requires a weekly vacuum and wipe down. The range of fashion fabrics repel liquids and stains. Available in small, medium and custom made large beds with a range of matching cushions and bolsters.

Tug, pull, throw, float, repeat

The Būmi is a modern dogs boomerang and might just come back to you all be it in the mouth of a fetching dog. Made from recycled material, the West Paw Design company says this toy will last and is guaranteed against 'dog damage'.

Egg your dog on this Easter

We all know that chocolate is a big no no for dogs, even at Easter so why not treat them with carob instead. These 100% dog friendly Easter eggs are made from carob and are a sweet treat for Easter festivities.

Take a peak at Play-N-Squeak

Here's a selection of toys that will hone your cats hunting instinct. These cute critters feature an electronic sound module that produces a mousy squeak. From soft canvas to crinkly raffia, your cat's sure to enjoy this range of toys.

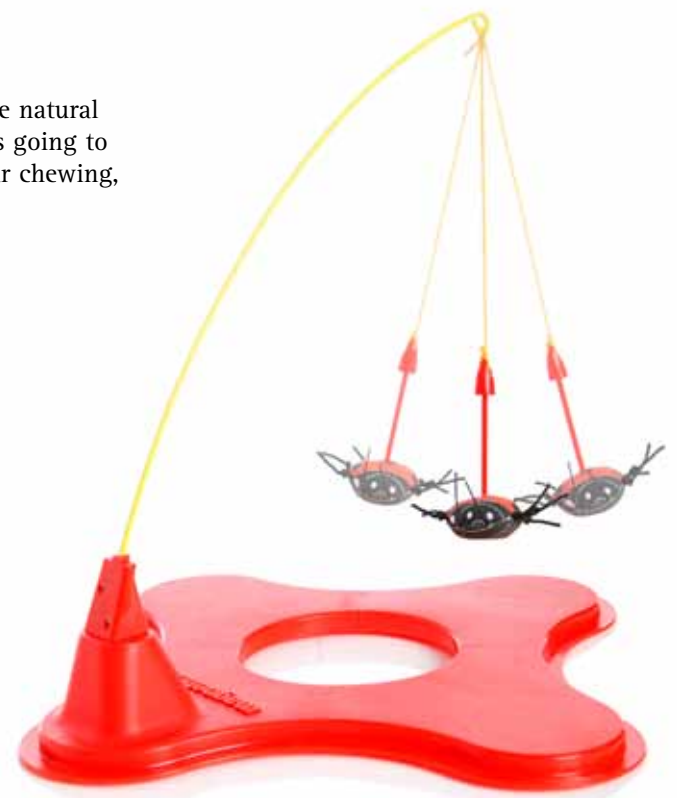

Just choose Just Chews

A natural treat will keep chewers going for hours. These natural cow hooves are crammed with beefy flavour your dog is going to love to chew. Natural rough texture, together with regular chewing, reduces plaque build-up.

Cataction with magnetic action

The Cataction Magneticat is a dynamic new toy that will mesmerize cats with its magnetic motion for hours! Opposing magnetic forces keep the bug moving on the end of its line. No batteries needed! All it takes is a little nudge by your cat and the magnets hidden inside the base of this intriguing toy will keep the toy in constant motion. Your cat will be fascinated by the sway and spin of the hanging ladybug.

Noah's grooming products make short work of shedders

You won't let your pet hair get in a tangle with these great grooming tools from Noah's. The 2-in-1 Grooming Tool combines a rake and de-shedder in one. The Clean Cut Nail Clippers have a guard so that there is no possibility of over cutting nails and harming your pet.
