Kitty Cuz

From the makers of 'Squeaky Monster' comes the sequel, 'Revenge of the Cat Empire'. These little foam creatures are sure to be a hit with the kitty in your life. They're lightweight and bounce off surfaces so that your cat can have plenty of fun flitting them around the floor.

The Kitty Cuz (Bad Cuz and Good Cuz) come as a tag team and retail for $5.95

Got to love the Hoff-Ritzenhoff

German homeware and kitchenware company, Ritzenhoff, have a reputation of turning out some interesting and vibrant designs. This sturdy and colourful bottle opener is easy to grip and great to look at with a dog on one side and cat on the other. Pass the Hefeweizen, Oktoberfest is just around the corner!

Found at David Jones and selected homeware stores $14.95

Make a great (pet) impression

Have a classy and attractive keepsake that reflects the uniqueness of your best friend. My Pet Impression is a handcrafted and framed memento of your pet's paw, claw or foot print. An imprint is taken of your pet's paw and then placed into a non-toxic clay, then glazed and displayed in a box picture frame.

There are two options available—one with just the paw impression or the other that showcases the imprint and your favourite photo.

By appointment only.

Four Paws for furry friends

Local Sydney dog bakery, Four Paws, make delicious bone shaped treats for snack-down time. These wafer thin cookies come in six flavours—Molasses Snaps; Peanut Butter Oatmeal; Banana Blitz; Apple & Cinnamon; Faux Chocolate Chip (made with dog friendly carob) and Taste of Italy that is a pizza, pupa-licious taste sensation. A 325g bag contains approximately 45 cookies.

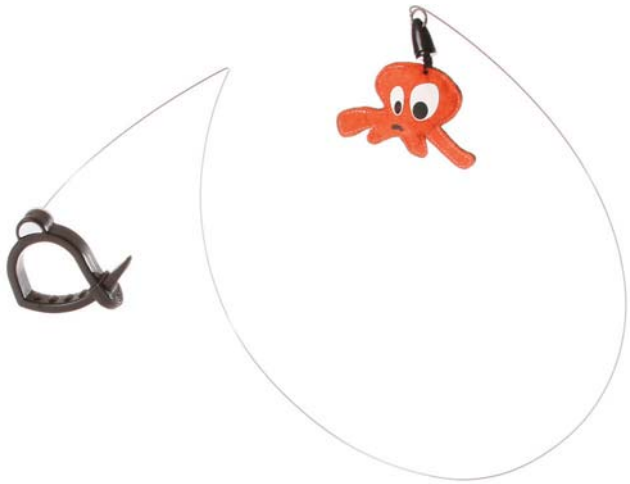

Shower me in daisies

Brighten dreary, drizzly days with this sweet flowery rain slicker. The 'Jazzy Jacket' protects your cutie's coat with rain repellent fabric accented with vinyl daisies. It has snap fasteners around the neck and stretchy belly-band with a plastic snap closure. Comes in small and medium sizes in two colour combinations—red with yellow daisies and blue with pink daisies.

Small $10.00 & medium $12.00

Creepy Kitty toys

Creeps are a series of cat toys that will be sure to delight and intrigue playful cats. Pictured here is Captain Clark the crunchy catnip fuelled, crinkly toy. He also takes the form of Bobcat a wiry, dangly toy that attaches to most door handles for hours of playful cat swiping fun.
RRP $5.95 & $7.95 for the Bobcat

Fishing Fun for the Aquarium

Get some fun, bubbling action in your aquarium with this range of air-activated ornaments. Simply attach an airline to the ornament, anchor the base and airline with gravel and enjoy the motion in your living room ocean. Here's just three available in the series—The boozing Drunken Skeleton, Ferris Wheel and a flag hoisting Pirate Ship. Ahoy me fishies! Available at pet stores and specialist aquarium retailers.

Active birds will love Activitoys

Try your luck and Spin the Roulette Wheel, sharpen your bird-brain playing TicTacToe or phone a feathered friend on the Pay Phone. These bright, reflective toys either clip or screw onto the side of most cages and will provide plenty of interactive fun. Recommended for little beaks. RRP $7.95 to $8.95

Just say no to genetically modified toys

Simply Fido have launched a range of organic toys for the nature loving puppy. Unbleached, untreated cotton is coloured using their PureWaterWash process to achieve their muted pastel colours. These pesticide and herbicide free critters have removable squeakers and pictured here is Lucy the bunny who is one of four in the series.

Party animals will love these pretty collars

This range of collars are as bright as a spring Sydney day. Made of durable vinyl coated leather and nylon with pretty detailing they are a sure to make heads turn for fashion in the field. Prices start at $16.00
